A Room of One's Own is an extended essay by Virginia Woolf, first published in September 1929. The work is based on two lectures Woolf delivered in October 1928 at Newnham College and Girton College, women's constituent colleges at the University of Cambridge. A Room of One's Own is an independent, local bookstore: Room offers a wide selection of current and classic fiction, nonfiction, periodicals, graphic novels, local interest titles, gifts, greeting cards. We also have strong children's and young adult, women's studies and LGBT fiction and nonfiction sections. A Room of One's Own is of course canonical and hardly needs another recommendation. The almost flippant tone with which Woolf skewers male artistic superiority with arguments while simultaneously refuting the same idea with a style itself ingenious etches in one's soul the plight of women in the early twentieth century.
