

Pablo Ortiz Monasterio

Pablo Ortiz Monasterio - Pablo Ortiz Monasterio is a Mexican photographer, writer and editor born in Mexico City in 1952. He is internationally recognized as one of the most representative artists of the Mexican contemporary photography. Pablo Ortiz Monasterio. In 1994, he founded the Centro de la Imagen in Mexico City, an important venue for the education, discussion and promotion of photography in Mexico. This includes extensive educational programs in photography in Mexico City and throughout the country as well as exhibition projects, including the Bienal de Fotografía and Fotoseptiembre. Pablo Ortiz Monasterio es un fotógrafo mexicano (nacido en 1952 en Ciudad de México) que se ha destacado como uno de los artistas contemporáneos mexicanos más importantes a nivel internacional. En sus imágenes es testigo de la cruda realidad de su ciudad natal, en la que testifica la miseria y pobreza urbana del país. Pablo Ortiz Monasterio will be leading a 7-day intensive book-editing workshop in which he will help participants take existing bodies of work and, through a series of practical and theoretical lessons, conceptualize a book that is authentic, surprising and true to the photographer.